The Third Sunday of Advent
December 11, 2022
9:30 AM

A note of joyful expectation marks today's worship. Isaiah announces that the desert shall rejoice and blossom, and Jesus points to the unexpected and transforming signs of God's reign. We wait with patience for the coming of the Lord, even as we rejoice at his presence among us this day: in word and holy supper, in church and in our homes, in silent reflection and in works of justice and love. We pray that God would open our eyes and ears to the wonders of Christ's advent among us.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Pastor: We've heard it said,

People: That all good things come to those who wait.

Indeed, Advent is a time of waiting.

Advent is a time of patience.

But we are not a patient people.

We want things now.

And we want them our way.

And we want them in our time.

And that includes the joys of Christmas.

Let us therefore, seek God's forgiveness for our impatience.

(kneel or sit)

Lord, Forgive us for wanting things now, our way, and in our time.

Forgive us Lord, for rushing things.

Rushing to parties as we pass by the church.

Rushing home as we pass by the homeless.

Rushing to the store as we pass by the hungry.

Rushing to the bank as we pass by the needy.

Rush into our lives, O Lord, and save us from ourselves.

Rush into our lives, O Lord, and grant us forgiveness.

For the sake of Jesus Christ, God forgives you all your sins.

Thank you, God, for rushing into our lives.

Thank you, God, for rushing into our very hearts.

Fill us with patience that our Christmas joy might be complete.

Then we will know that all good things come to those who wait!

All good things come to those who wait upon the Lord.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Stir up the wills of your faithful people, Lord God, and open our ears to the preaching of John, that, rejoicing in your salvation, we may bring forth the fruits of repentance; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH

Leader: We light three candles

People: And we pray for joy.

We light three candles.

And we look to the day when all prisoners will be free, when all the sick will be healed, and when all the sad will be glad.

We rejoice with the angels as they prepare to welcome you into the world.

You bring joy to the world, O Lord.

We celebrate the good news that you are coming to wipe every tear from our eyes.

You bring joy to the world, O Lord.

We are happy to say that we believe in you.

Come, O Lord, to lighten our hearts and brighten our days.

Amen.

GOSPEL

Matthew 11:2-11

The holy gospel according to St. Matthew, the 11th chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

²When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples ³and said to him, “Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?” ⁴Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John what you hear and see: ⁵the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. ⁶And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me.”

⁷As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? ⁸What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. ⁹What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. ¹⁰This is the one about whom it is written, ‘See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.’

¹¹Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.” The gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

Pastor: As we anticipate the fullness of the presence of Christ, we join with the Church throughout the world, praying for all who are in need.

Lord God, you sent your Son in the fullness of time to be the Light of the World, the light no darkness can overcome. Give us patience to await your gracious will trusting that at the right time you will also answer our prayers in times of anxiousness and trouble.

Lord of Love, you do not cast off those who doubt or who cannot believe your promises, but in your patient biding, you continue to prod and encourage them along their way. Support them with your love and give them new ears to hear and eyes to see what you are doing in the world.

Lord of Hope, thank you for every messenger of yours who stands unbowed against sin and wrong doing and who stands up for truth, honesty and justice. Especially this day do we give you thanks for John the Baptist. May his example inspire us to the same faithfulness to our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Lord of the Nation, We pray for your Church all around the world that your people everywhere might celebrate the promise fulfilled – the birth of your Son and do so with joy, generous charity and a forceful proclamation of the Word made flesh. Guide the leaders of the world, especially the leaders of our own nation as they go about making difficult decisions. And in the name of the Prince of Peace bring healing to peoples in turmoil everywhere. Especially do we pray for the people of Ukraine and Iran.

Lord of Healing, You restore the blind, the deaf, the lame, the speechless, and you give to the dead abundant life. Make us whole and restore to health all those in need of your healing touch especially... Beth Painter, The family of Jasmine Pace, The family of Carolyn Emerson (Lynn Kohl), Paula June & Karen Ward (Muncy family), Shirley Wooten & Leon Stonecipher (Joyce Davis), Faith Buck & Branda Nun (Buck family), John Ray, Claudia Bargiel, Kristen Jackson Espinoza (Steve Jackson), Ed Kreider (Diana Kreider), Sheila Hilley, Alexander (Becca Krause), Marlene Hiltunen, Candi McPherson, Art Minninger, Paul Giesel (David Giesel), Margaret Jones, Susan Bolinger (Ginny Minninger), Shawn & Mark (Marlene Hiltunen), Lynn Ayers (Cree Giesel), Scott Baily (Fran Balsis), Alice Barnett, Colin Bakse (Sondra Hart), Bill Balsis, Gene & Laura Cline... and those we name before you now, both aloud and in our hearts...

Pastor: Into your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray trusting in your mercy, through our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God through our Savior Jesus Christ. You comforted your people with the promise of the Redeemer, through whom you will also make all things new in the day when he comes to judge the world in righteousness.

Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life:
Blessed are you for the birth of creation.
Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light.
Blessed are you for your promise to your people.
Blessed are you in the prophets' hopes and dreams.
Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will.
Blessed are you for your Son Jesus, the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

With this bread and cup, we remember your Word dwelling among us, full of grace and truth. We remember our new birth in his death and resurrection. We look with hope for his coming.

Come, Lord Jesus.

Holy God, we long for your Spirit. Come among us. Bless this meal. May your Word take flesh in us. Awaken your people. Fill us with your light. Bring the gift of peace on earth.

Come, Holy Spirit.

All praise and glory are yours, Holy One of Israel, Word of God incarnate, Power of the Most High, one God, now and forever. Amen

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Come now with joy to Emmanuel's table. Feast at the banquet of hope and love. Thanks be to God.
